Mr. Senior 2010 Real Sophistication

Mr. Senior, Vincent Phillips is an Accounting major from Washington D.C. Upon graduation, his plans are to attend graduate school and to ultimately work as an accountant for his home church.

When I think of the title, Mr. Senior 2010, I feel an overwhelming sense of pride. These four years at Shaw University were fun, frugal, and fast. I am grateful to the many professors who have shared their knowledge and instruction in the classroom.

I am thankful for Shaw University's administration, who have worked so tirelessly and have embraced the student body as if we were their children. I would like to thank Interim President, Dr. Dorothy Cowser Yancy for redirecting the University, she has performed her many duties with diligence and determination in such a small amount of time. Because of Dr. Yancy's efforts, I have a renewed faith that Shaw will continue to strive for excellence for another one-hundred and forty years. All of Shaw University's members past, present, and future members are destined for success and prosperity. I would like to commend the Freshman class of 2013. They have shown great promise and dedication to this school. I leave them with this charge, "be the best freshman class that Shaw has seen, be the best individual that you can be."

African Americans have always been a proud people, my family continues to tell me how proud they are of me and now I can say that being a part of Shaw University has allowed me to be proud of myself and of my peers.

Life continues blessing everyone supernaturally. I am honored to carry the title of Mr. Senior, words cannot explain exactly how proud I am to be a Shaw Bear.

Be Bless

Being Miss Senior, has allowed me to establish life long friends and connect with instructors who have become mentors to me. As a Sociology major I plan to further my education and attend graduate school. My ultimate goal is to make a difference in other people's lives.

Holding the title of Miss Senior was an honor as well as a privilege. During my tenor I had to meet the standard and maintain a 2.5 GPA and be in good standing with the school. The position of Miss Senior is actually an elected one which means I had to win the votes from my peers. This was not only a popularity contest but an academic one as well. Winning actually gives a boost to ones self-esteem and convinced me that I was a likable and respected person.

Having this opportunity allowed me to be involved in many school activities behind the scenes and it showed me the hard work and long hours that it takes to make them successful. This four year journey at Shaw University has made me a strong and independent woman.

I would like to extend my gratitude to the many faculty, staff and of course my fellow classmates for sticking by me and helping me with this chapter of my life.

Gloria Dease is a Sociology major from Washington, DC

Life is full of opportunities that we fail to take advantage of when making career choices to help us work towards a life more comfortable. The awesome seniors on the following pages have taken the initiative to go the distance in order to graduate and enter into something new. Rather it is graduate school, corporate America, or being ambitious enough to be an entrepreneur, life after college is going to be very challenging. So sit down and write a list of some of the goals that you want to achieve after Shaw. Where do you see yourself in 5 years? Congratulations class of 2010, This is your time to raise up! Yes You Can!!

"Raleigh CAPE students are dedicated to serving the community", says Ida Watson, President of the Raleigh CAPE Student Government Association. She believes that giving back is the only way. "It allows for growth and hope for our youth and the future of all African Americans." says Ms. Watson, she is pictured left with Crystal Gilmore.

From the mountainous slopes of Asheville to the mighty shores of Wilmington, Shaw University, has extended her mighty arms to embrace scholars from across the State of North Carolina and beyond. Shaw University's nine CAPE sites continue to offer adults and working students a chance to pursue a degree in a non-traditional setting. These walls of Shaw, these hallowed halls, pulsating, beating, echoes abound. Voices of experience, words of wisdom, tears of triumph. Rejoice Shaw bears. With hope to spare, tears of joy, courage and pride nothing denied. Everything to gain, this blessed place. Where we've won the race; we will never be the same, we'll always remain. So hail Shaw U, so strong and true.

Xania Steele was born May 17, 1988 to the loving parents Winzell and Joyce Steele. Throughout her childhood, Xania showed enormous strength and intrinsic will to do well at whatever she put her mind to. In high school she was very active in sports (basketball, tennis, and track) while maintaining a 3.57 GPA. Upon graduation Xania received scholarships to many institutions including Temple University, University of Maryland, Drexel, Virginia Commonwealth, as well as others. However, she had her mind set on Shaw University had offered a full academic, presidential scholarship.

With her mind made up and her heart steadfast. Xania headed to Raleigh, NC, 295 miles from home, with no friends or family in the area. This took a true act of boldness to start literally anew. Xania quickly became a member of the Lady Bears basketball team as a manager where she built strong relationships. Xania has also taken an active role on campus by becoming a member of the women's tennis team (who won the CIAA conference last season), tutoring students, ushering events, and helping any way that she could.

Mr. Homecoming

Mr. Jamal Riddick was born and raised in Jamaica Queens, New York. After the completion of his bachelors degree in Business Management, he plans to attend law school with aspirations of becoming an entertainment lawyer.

Mr. Corey Leak, a Senior Music major, was the runner-up for Mr. Homecoming. Mr. Leak hails from Harlem New York.

Miss Homecoming

Miss Markia Chappelle lives by faith, God, and love. She is the daughter of Marc and Lori Chappelle. In her spare time she enjoys reading, acting, and writing poetry. Markia is on the Dean's List and is currently the church clerk for the Thomas J. Boyd Chapel.

Miss Jessica Johnson

Miss Kiara Henderson

Five contestants vied for the title of Miss Homecoming. To be eligible, contestants must maintain a GPA of 2.5 or higher, be involved in their community, and exemplify grace and poise. Contestants were required to address the student body and a vote was taken. All contestants met these requirements but ultimately the crown went to Ms. Markia Chappelle.

A Red Carpet Affair

To keep in tune with the royal, formal, sophisticated flare that only Shaw U can exemplify. Students went all out when the opportunity arose where they could pull out of the closet, cocktail dresses, gown, shirts, and ties, dust them off and then show them off at the "Red Carpet Affair". This was the first time that the affair was held in Sheraton Hotel on Salisbury Street in downtown Raleigh. This venue also heightened level of glamour to this event.

Shaw U's Very Own LaQuita "Keke" M.C. Cowart Runs for Miss Black Raleigh USA 2010

Name: LaQuita M. C. Cowart
Age: 20
Classification: Junior
Major: Social Work
Extra Curricular Activities:
Shaw University Ambassador
Student Development Coordinator
Member of the Diamond Sensation
Danceline
Honors College
Miss 1936 of the Beta Rho Chapter of Alpha Phi ALpha Incorporated

What running for Miss Black NC Meant to me:

Running for Miss Black North Carolina USA 2010 was a great experience. Being the youngest of the group, I had much to learn, the seasoned contestants me took me under their wings and showed me a great time. Even though I did not walk away with the Miss Black North Carolina 2010 crown, I did walk away with something greater, five life long sisters. I had a lot of fun and hope to participate again. I look forward to a greater experience in my quest to become Miss Black USA 2012.

During the competition I decided to do a tribute to Michael Jackson because he was by the far the greatest dancer and that is what I love to do. I danced to a mix of "Thriller, Remember the Time, Beat It and SMooth Criminal." I was very proud of myself because I got all the moves right, from MJ's famous kick to the moonwalk!!! My placement in the pageant was 3rd.

I plan to become Miss Shaw University and moreover graduate from Shaw University in May of 2011. After graduation I will pursue a dual masters degree from UNC Chapel Hill, North Carolina State University, Pennsylvania State University or Norfolk State University. All four schools have outstanding social work programs. I just haven't chosen one yet. Interest:

LaQuita Cowart (third left), join reigning queens including Ms. Ebony Lucas (second right), Shaw graduate class of 2009 and Miss Black Charlotte USA.

Travel and seeing new things. Dance whether it's teaching or dancing on another team. I don't plan on ever letting that part of my life go.

Rep Your City The Places We Love! Photo Courtesy of Kenyahta Johnson

Each year students at Shaw U take pride in their home cities by participating in the "Rep Your City" poster contest. The Willie E. Gary Center comes alive with poster boards, markers and streamers. Whose poster represents their city the best? This year it was Cali, that's right! California reigned true from Hollywood to Oakland.

For Shaw many students travel from all over the nation to come to this gorgeous campus located in downtown Raleigh, NC. Cities including D.C., Baltimore, Norfolk. Boston, New York, Newark, Atlanta, Detroit, Miami, and many others. Students bring their own forms of fashion, music, dance, dialect, and food to the University. You can get a flare of where our students come from, through the designs presented in their posters.

The ranking for the Rep Your City poster contest is #1 California; #2 District of Columbia; and #3 Raleigh. North Carolina the home of Shaw University!

What to do in downtown Raleigh?

You can visit Artspace, a 30,000 square foot facility home to 35 artists; or you can visit North Carolina's museums of art, history and natural sciences. North Carolina Museum of Natural Science offers the only interactive museum about the world; the Museum of Natural History is the largest natural history museum in the Southeastern United States and the Art Museum is home to the most comprehensive European art collection in the South.A stroll down Fayetteville Street, will allow you to experience a cosmopolitan Southern city setting with its distinctive restaurants and impressive skyscrapers mixed among restored historic buildings. Fayetteville Street offers a tourist vibe, the vista and venues that stretch from the Progress Energy Center for the Performing Arts to Shaw University are grand enough to host big city events. However you define fun and entertainment, the area nightlife offers the perfect activity to match your special interests.

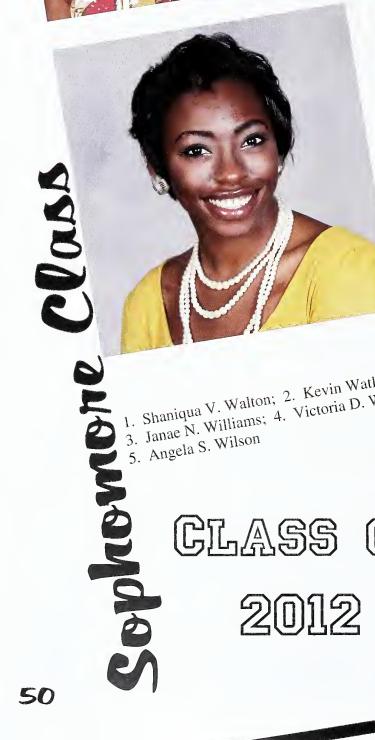

With restaurants such as Woody's, the Big Easy and Krispy Kremes, okay we know that Krispy Kremes is not a restaurant but one cannot pass up a delicious donut when the "Hot" light is on. Whether you're searching for fine-dining, an outdoor cafe, or popping into a deli, dining in Raleigh is a mixture of variety, warmth, and downhome cooking. When you talk about restaurants, you've got to start with some Carolina favorites, sweet tea, mouth-watering barbecue, hush-puppies, and just down right homestyle southern food, all brought to you with Southern service. Yet Raleigh is getting more and more famous for its bigcity eateries, Italian bistros, Pan-Asian delights, Mediterranean wonders and spicy, irresistible Jamaican dishes. Those are just the first course of what its 500-plus restaurants have to offer.

In the photos: Here are some of the masterpieces that Shaw's finest have created. Representing cities including New Jersey, Atlanta, and ethers.

Roller skating at Shaw University. Who would have known that four talented students were meeting on the 1st Thursday of every month at the Skate Place in Garner, NC to show off some of the most unusual maneuvers on two feet and four wheels? The rink is usually jammed packed with people from all over North Carolina, Virginia, South Carolina and Maryland rolling to the beat of a mixture of up tempo James Brown with new and current music. Coming together for these Shaw students was informal, "we just saw each other at the rink and decided to hook up!" says Jamese Dillard, the only female skater in the bunch. Skating is something to do, its fun, relatively inexpensive ($7 for skate rental) and a good way to socialize.

Finding a place to skate on campus is challenging, We would like to open this up to more students, However there really isn't anywhere to skate. Most times we use the ballroom, the skates don't harm the floor since most wheels are universal and adapt to most floor surfaces Most wheels used in roller skating are not made for outdoor use; But the Spaulding would probably be better. Competitions are held randomly at the Skate Place and prizes can be anything from electronics to money. Both Fred and Craig have been invited to compete in other states but have not had the opportunity to do so yet. They prefer to focus on finishing school and competing academically and using skating as a way to have fun. Competition can be challenging but the mere act of skating is relaxing, you get to zone out all the negatives that come and the style of skating can be a reflection of your emotions and attitude.

Chrystal Bynum and Shanetta Alston are both seniors, graduating in May 2010. Chrystal is a Psychology major with a 3.0 GPA and Shanetta is an English major with a 3.1 GPA. They are from Roanoke Rapids, NC. We asked them a series of questions: Why Shaw U: Chrystal- It was close to home, has an intimate classroom setting and has a religious affiliation. Shanetta-Class size and religious affiliation

Life after Shaw: Chrystalgraduate school, Capella University in Missouri, for a masters in Education and Counseling. Shanetta- grad school, Georgia State looks good!

Interests; Chrystal- writing, reading

Activities: Chrystal- Zeta Phi Beta, football manager, volunteer at Chavis Community Center. Shanettatour-guide for Admissions, event staff for sororities, office assistant for Financial Aid

How do you fell about gong to school with your sister: Chrystal-Shanetta and I did not grow up together. This was a good opportunity for us. We motivate each other, she is my rock. Shanetta- This is a great experience Chrystal made coming to Shaw a better decision.

Friends Since Freshman Vear

Thomas(right) are both Juniors still seem to hold it down!

How did you meet: First saw each other in the cafe, we spoke and moved on. Then we saw each other in the mall. We were finally introduced through a roommate and became fast friends. The passing of Ja Tia's uncle pushed us closer together. We argue a lot, laugh a lot and inspire each other to finish what we start. Having someone who has your back is priceless.

Why Shaw U: Shaw has a family atmosphere and having a religious base helps tremendously. We wouldn't trade this experience for anything, well maybe a million dollars, but no really, we love Shaw!

Entertainment music

Brian Moore, for Just Entertainment, is a Senior, Mass Communication Major with a GPA of a 3.0. He plans to release his album in which he co-wrote the majority of the record. His genre consist of Gospel, Jazz, and a hint of Neo-Soul.

Letting God have his way

Brian Moore, a Senior here at Shaw University, is singer-songwriter signed to Just Entertainment. This recording is proving that would God on your side and hard work you can walk in to your destiny. Shaw U's yearbook staff had the pleasure of sitting down with this talented artist to see what's next for him after graduation and what we can be expecting for him later this year.

S: First off, Why did you choose Shaw University?

B: My original plan was to attend Norfolk State, but due to financial trouble, I choose the school that would give the most money, and Shaw practically gave me a full ride.

S: How has Shaw inspired you music?

B: It has taught me how to become braver as an artist and giving me more opportunities and networks. Shaw is rhetorically a liberal artist schools with all this great talent, this has showed me how to step out the box. I've learned to step outside the box, allowing people to know i cant be J. Moss or Kim Burrell.

S: What inspire you to do music?

B: I know it's my calling, in truth I know my voice is meant to heal. I didn't want to sing but the week before my aunt past of Bone Marrow disease she prophesied that I was going to be a singer and be use to heal.

S: What can we be expecting from the future from you?

B: Well have plans of releasing my debut album "Transition" that I've been working on for 3 years now produced by Dauntea Tyler of Just Entertainment later this year. After Grad, I want to travel and promote my music. I have lot to speak of, and alot to share. I want to get establish to take care of my family. I believe in sharing your blessing.

ASIAN INVASION

2009 was the year of some of the Today's top Asian artist taking over the US market. These profound artist have achieve global success and now have plans of doing the same in the States. Some of these artist include BoA (not to be confused with Bank of America), Se7en, The WonderGirls, and the incredible Utada. They have already begun making a mark in their career by taking over the US charts. BoA's hit single "I did it for love" featuring Sean Garret has top the Dance Club-Play charts, Se7en's new single "Girls" feat. Lil' Kim can be seen on BET's 106 and Park, and The WonderGirls has already achieved a top 40 position on the Billboard Hot 100. For Utada, she is not a stranger to the US market. She has already had successful singles in the US including her new single "Come Back to Me" & "Simple and Clean" which can be heard on the video game Kingdom Hearts. As one of the biggest selling artist in Japanese history, her new album "This is the one" is sure to be a must have. She has already begun a new tour and releasing her new single "Dirty Desire" produced by The Dream and Tricky Stewart. I'm sure we wont have an issue keeping a look out for these great artist.

nterests: Music, theater Entrepreneurial endeavors: The Anthony Cosby Show
How did you come up with the for the show:

What started out as just a few show posted on Facebook and YouTub the summer of '09 Mrs. Davis encouraged me to consider doing the show with Shaw students as my audience. When school started in thfall, I spoke with Student Activities. got an advisor and the Anthony Cosby Show transformed into one of Shaw's most talked about events on campus. The Anthony Cosby talk show is a small branch of the A. C. Knowles Empire which produces cooking shows, talk shows and music videos. The show's production is ran and operated by Student Activities interns along with Mass Communication

What was your goal for the show: The purpose was to motivate, educate and entertain. Topics deal with real studen issues, from relationships to haters & frienemies and even self-esteem. To grant students the opportunity to congregate, for free, and be themselves.

History Speaks for Itself

The Thomas J. Boyd Chapel Religion and learning as a joint venture, forging a marriage between character development and knowledge, has been an integral part of the Shaw tradition from its founding in 1865. This tradition is under girded throughout the campus by a strong commitment to God and also by service to humankind.

Since the University regards all things as spiritual, the university chapel, headquarters for spiritual ministration, is given a pivotal role in providing leadership for both individual and corporate enhancement of spiritual growth and development. The current university administration consistently reminds the campus community of the unique role the university has as she develops moral leaders.

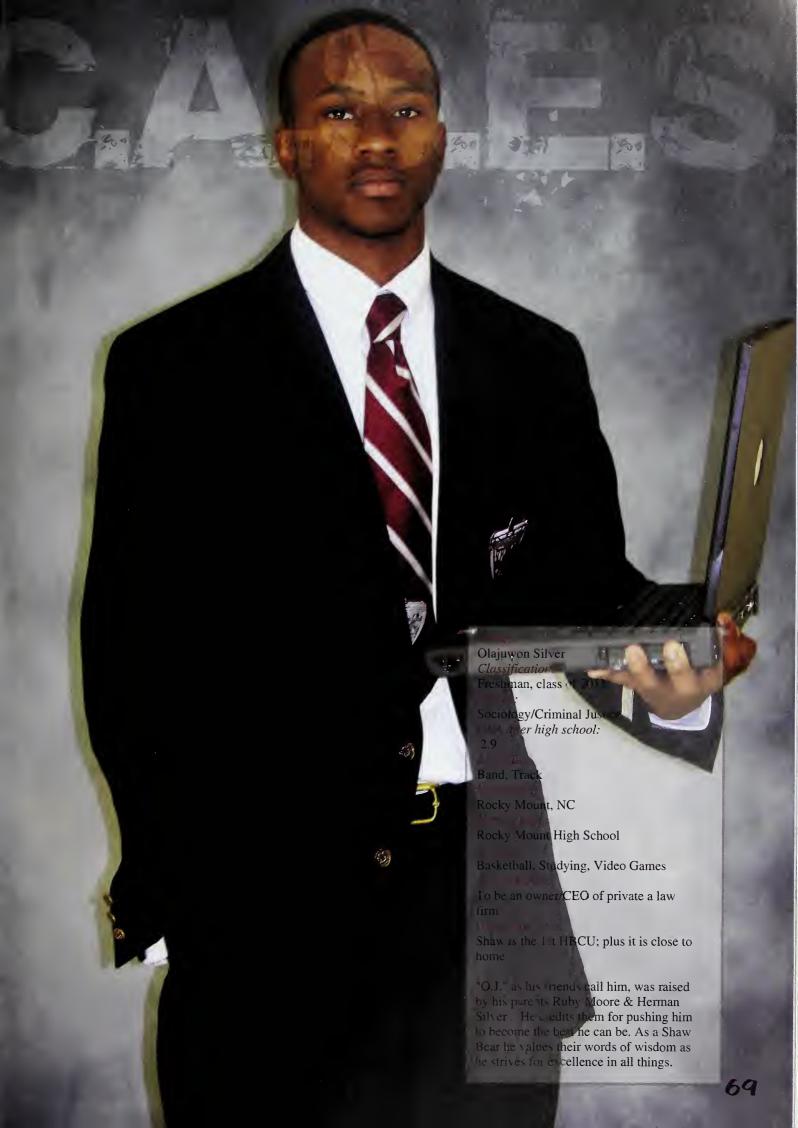

The Thomas J. Boyd Chapel in all of its beauty and splendor symbolizes the high regard the administration, students, faculty, staff and alumni have for the spiritual dimension of the university mission.

The Thomas J. Boyd Chapel was rebuilt and rededicated in 1993 pursuant to the effort and donations from Dr. Thomas J. Boyd, Pastor Emeritus of Salem Missionary Baptist Church in Brooklyn, New York. The Chapel is a place for celebration, sacraments, pastoral care, Bible study, worship and other special activities that include Religious Emphasis Week, the Bessie Boyd Holman Lecture Series on Ethics & Values, Senior Sunday, Thomas J. Boyd Sunday and Noon Day Meditation.

Norman Johnson Taking on Shaw as Freshman President

Greetings from Norman Johnson your Freshmen Class President, first I would like to thank everyone for voting me in as your freshmen class president. My goal is to enhance Shaw University academically and socially, through different activities. My plan is simply to use a hands-on approach and solicit and implement ideas from my fellow student. I want to make this campus better. I thank everyone in the freshmen class for contributing to a great year.

An opportunity to be different to stand out in the crowd, stand out in the yard, stand out in the hall or blend in seamless on the campus, in the cafe, in the Den. The choices we make today affect our tomorrow. Let's see, I could study, shoot some pool, practice my instrument, or go to the club. Choices, what I choose to do today will affect my tomorrow, volunteer, or just don't care, stare into a haze, what did that professor just say? ### Striving for excellence

Cadet Quanesha Danielle Robinson is a senior, she leads her squad with the determination of a true leader. After Shaw, Cadet Robinson, will began her Lead Development Assessment Course(LDAC), upon completion she will become a 2nd lieutenant in the United States Army.

Cadet Bruce (class of 2011), loves adventure and ROTC fit the bill it allows for travel, and pays for school. ROTC is a job, but it is not just the money that attracted him, he actually loves the job. He chose Shaw because it was close to home as his parents get older, he wanted to be close to them. He also has a younger brother that he looks out for. Most cadets start out as a Military Science (MS) 1 or 2. Cadet Bruce is a MS3 and will start LDAC in his senior year, guaranteeing an automatic commission upon graduation.

Army ROTC (Reserve Officers' Training Corps) is one of the best leadership courses in the country and is part of your college curriculum. During classes, leadership labs, physical training and field training exercises, you will learn firsthand what it takes to lead others, motivate groups and conduct missions as an Officer in the Army. Upon graduation from Army ROTC, you will earn the bar of a Second Lieutenant and be commissioned into the Active Army, Army Reserve or Army National Guard and become a leader for life.

For more information on joining ROTC please visit www.goarmy.com/rotc or www.shawu.edu

Name: Blair Carter

GPA: 3.02

Classification: Junior Hometown: Hampton, VA

Major: Social Work

Why Shaw U: Shaw accepted me on the spot and on my birthday so I thought it was God's way of telling me I belonged at Shaw Activities: El Shaddai, Student Ambassador, Office of Student Activities Intern. member of Student Social Work Association Social Work Curriculum Student Committee Member, volunteer with Durham Urban Ministries, Resident Advisor

Behind the Scenes: As Miss Internal Vice President, looking from the outside in, Blair would have never thought that the job would entail so much, from being called on by University officials to co-chairing the Miss Shaw University Pageant, serving as Chair of the Election Committee and having to appoint committee members, along with maintaining her academic schedule and a host of other job duties.

Senior year expectations: Will run again for Internal VP and maintain my Resident Advisor position. Blair hopes to complete field practice with the Wake County Court System

The Transfer Experience

Name: Antonia Taylor

GPA: 2.7

Classification: 1st semester Sophomore. Transfer student from: Craven

Community College in New Bern, NC

Major: Psychology

Why Shaw U: Heard it was a good school with a strong spiritual

background

Activities: Guardian Ad Litem, through the Wake County Court System. This program deals with children who have been neglected, abused or are dependents of the state. Training in the martial arts of karate and self defense. It is always a to good item to be aware as a young woman and since she travels often martial arts keep her senses sharp and to alert at all times.

Interests: Ice skating, movies and my ministry. Founder of Mourning into Dancing, a dance program geared towards young girls ages 6-13 and named for her favorite quote from the Bible; Psalms 30:11, "you have turned my mourning into joyful dancing. You have taken away my clothes of mourning and clothed me with joy," Antania would like to do the same here in Raleigh and open it up to children who can't afford to pay for formal dance lessons.

Future goals: A PhD in Psychology, to own a private practice to open a church (in four years) here are many universities but none like Show. Show's Pride will keep you movin', excited, and ready to express the great emotion that comes from ottending this school. As seen in mony of these photos our fellow Show Bears know how to aet down. From the Greeks to the Bond. Our sospisticated Essence of Pearls and Spontaneous Chi-Chi's have the crowd hollering for more. The event storted off with the moscot leading the crowd in the Show U way. Soon ofter the cheerleaders, also known as "The Chi-Chi's", come out with high energy performing vorious cheers to get the crowd pumping. Their expressive hond movements, powerful stepping, and intense cheers coused on immediate surge of school spirit in the room. As the event transitioned we sow our very own Plotinum Sound Drumline toke the stage to perform some of the University's fovorite codences. They would soon show off their skills by their ropid movements and precise motions ollowing every strake footwork, and vibration to create a mental image in your head. Watching this dynamic group causes you to reminisce on the 2002 film "Drumline" storring ropper and actor Nick Connon. Shortly often, we saw presentations by Essence of Pearls as they strutted to the hit single by Lil Ru "Nosty Song" courtesy of Def Jam Recording. They flounted their elegant flogs before breaking it down and showing you that there is more to these divos than they are given credited for. As the show continued Platinum Sound's Diamond Sensation perform their donce routine to Michael Jockson's single "Working day and night" from his chart-topping album "Off The Woll" used courtesy of Epic records/Sony music entertainment. continue on the next page...

When observing Shaw University's campus we tend to get a glimpse of today's fashion explosion. From the young ladies that make Rihanna look like Flava Flav, to he sophisticated gentlemen who emulate the style of Fonzworth Bentley. Here at Shaw U fashion is a must. So when Pure Raw Couture, Shaw University's fashion team, came on the stage it wasn't a surprise when they came out ready to work the runway. Sporting some of the hottest apparel such as Express, American Eagle, Wet Seal, and Old Navy. These trends will be sure to have you going out and spending your dollars, They made this just another pep rally to remember.

A college event just wouldn't be the same without our fellow Frats and Sorors who came to show us what party hoppin' and true steppin' is all about. From the AKA's to the Alphas, to the Deltas and the Sigmas the Greeks showed us how to get down. At the end of the performance we learned that it is a just a serious matter. At the end of the pep rally the dance off began. It seem to be a version of "You Got Served", a 2004 Columbia Picture's Film, students began to show off their tightest and cleanest moves to some of today's top singles an the Billboard charts.

Why Shaw U: Shaw has always been a part of my Baptist upbringing. It was further distinguished by the teaching and preaching of the later Dr. Leon C. Riddick, my Pastor at Mt. Carmel Baptist Church in Charlotte, NC. The spirit he described is what I found in the halls of the High Point CAPE site, rooted in the wonder and knowledge of my people and my God. Shaw has molded my heart and strengthened my mind to serve. I have been challenged through exposure to the greatest and most brilliant minds of our time in the awesome women and men who serve as dedicated professors committed to empowering any student, traditional or non-traditional, attending the CAPE program.

Interests: Politics and Business

Activities: Church Choir, Flower Arrangement, Event planning

Life after Shaw: Education, Politics, Grad School

Life theme: Psalm 91

Personally: This accomplishment has enabled me to provide a legacy of excellence in education for Toni, my granddaughter. Regardless of the consequences of your decisions, never give up on your dream and follow the spirit of God.

SOUNDS OF THE CIAA

"Silver is out, Gold is old, Platinum is the sound that will reach your soul!" This announcement is made at every game during half-time right before the high stepping marching band known as "The Platinum Sound" takes the field to deliver an exhilarating performance. Under the direction of one of the most brilliant directors on the HBCU circuit, Charles V. Brown. Platinum Sound Marching Band continues to deliver an amazing showcase time after time. They impress you with the over exaggeration of what they describe as nineties. This effect is caused by precisely marching with your legs angling at a ninety degree angle. Their sound is truly platinum from bass of the tubas to the soul-fullness of the saxes. Their precision of hitting every note with detail will cause you to get chills that will run up and down your spine. Their range is as high as Minnie Riperton and as low as Barry White. Through the arrangements of Chris Evans you hear every detail of the selections they showcase causing you to jump out...continue on the next page of your seat and sing along. Song selections take you on a musical journey from the past to the present causing grandmothers to groove along with their grandchildren. Sounds of Chaka Khan mingle with Ne-Yo and you can't get enough of this terrific sound. Platinum Sound is not just known for the marching band, the jazz and concert band are just as popular with the fans. Mr. Brown has kept the tradition of showcasing classical and jazz music which cause band members to appreciate and embrace what being a real musician is all about. Being a part of the band heightens your inner sense of music, causing you to become more skillful, playful, confident, and educated on your instrument. Playing pieces from all over the world and with a repertoire that consists of the great Ttchaikovsky to the profound Quincy Hilliard challenges you to exceed your capabilities and to thirst for the richness and knowledge to be had from the history of music. - by Singer-Songwriter-Musician Tayvein Roberson

SOUNDS OF THE CIAA

Goodbye #22 Ronald "Flip" Murray's Jersey is Retired!!

No. 22 will never be worn again on February 15, 2010 in Spaulding Gymnasium, that jersey was retired. Ronald "Flip" Murray is in his eighth year in the NBA, currently with the Charlotte Bobcats. In two years at Shaw (2000-02) he averaged 23 points, 5.7 assists and 1.9 steals per game. He holds almost all of Shaw's single season records, including points, steals, assists, points per game, and free throws made. During the 2001-02 season, Murray led Shaw to the NCAA Division II Final Four, on his way to being named the Division II Player of the Year. In 2002, he was drafted in the 2nd round, No. 42 overall by the Milwaukee Bucks.

Chairman of the Board, Willie E. Gary and Dr. Dorothy Cowser Yancy join in the celebration as #22 is retired. Flip Murray is accompanied by his wife and child, and Coach Cleo Hill, the current Shaw men's basketball coach.

Diamond Sensation

Members of Diamond Sensation:

Paris Smith, Tosha St. Fort, Abriella Hill, LaQuita Cowart, Gloria Dease, Stephanie Smith, Tiffany Mackey and Nijah Patton

Dancing for these ladies is like second nature. Routines are usually improvised. each member bringing her own style and then formal styles of jazz, hip-hop, modern, African, and ballet are infused. Steps are repeated over and over again so that the end result is one that is synchronized. A good dancer is very flexible. Like everything at Shaw U, drive, ambition, determination and a little fun go a long way. Dancing takes a lot of practice and discipline but in the midst of that academics are strongly enforced. A smart dancer, gives you a great performance. If you love to dance you would love being a part of Diamond Sensation or watching them at work. The energy they exude is contagious. When these girls burst on the field at half-time the crowd goes wild as they perform to the music of the Platinum Sound Marching Band. If you are lacking school spirit attend a football game and watch these ladies at work, you will soon know what the Shaw U Pride is all about.

Did you know?

The Black Bear varies from 150 to 600 pounds and can be clocked at running speeds of 30 miles per hour. They are muscular and fast so you probably could not out run one. They are associated with great warriors and chieftains and can be seen in our constellations as Ursa Minor and Ursa Major.

Chi-Chi's are dedicated, energetic and full of school spirit. They work tirelessly, day and night to perfect their cheers. Even at 6 o'clock in the morning, you can find them doing a full range of exercises to keep themselves fit in both mind and body. Their ultimate goal is to reach the top and if you have seen them perform you will know that they are reaching that goal. Academics are a big part of the success of the Chi-Chi's most maintain a GPA of 2.7 although some have reached 3.5. In addition to keeping their peers uplifted during a game, they also perform community service and believe giving back is important.

Learning to overcome some of the biggest obstacles to achieve victory

here is no other time during the fall semester at Shaw University as when it is time for football. The air is charged with the beat of the cleats, the players are pumped with the sweet taste of victory at hand, the crowd is revved as the band plays and the dancers are jumping as #20 Raymond Williams, sways down the field with the grace of a dancer and the determination of mack-truck on the highway to heaven..

This has been a year of ups and downs. Our fellow Shaw Bears strove to make history while pressing through demanding schedules and fighting through the trials and tribulations at hand. Raymond Williams, along with Dwayne Moss and Robert Brown, III were selected to participate in the 2009 All-CIAA Preseason Team. "These young men earned this type of recognition and we're happy that they will have the opportunity not simply to play, but also to go through a combine that will expose them to scouts from the various professional leagues," said Shaw Head Coach Darrell Asberry.

The three Bears were be part of an East Team comprised of players from Division II's Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association (CIAA) and the NCAA FCS Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC). They faced a West Team comprised of athletes from the NCAA Division II Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (SIAC) and the FCS Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC). Moss (DL, Petersburg, VA) was named Pre-Season All-CIAA, but played in only a handful of games this season, but still managed to amass six tackles for a loss and 3.5 sacks. Smith (CB, Dublin, GA) was named CIAA Defensive Player of the Year, as well as being selected First Team All-CIAA. He also earned Division II Defensive Player of the Week honors for his record setting performance against Elizabeth City State, where he bested the former mark on interception return yards with 194 yards for three touchdowns. On the season, he had four interception returns for touchdowns, as well as two fumble returns for touchdowns. He was third on the team in tackles with 49 and had 4.5 tackles for a loss as well as nine interceptions. The reigning back-to-back CIAA champions received two of 16 first place votes and a total of 117 points to finish behind Tuskegee (eight first place votes, 143 points total) and Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association divisional rival Fayetteville State (three first place votes, 132 points total).

"Preseason rankings are nice recognition for the program," said Head Coach Darrell Asberry. He continued, "It's clear, however, that we need to beat Fayetteville State in order to get the respect that we so rightfully deserve."

Fun fact about Raymond Williams: He led the Bears in rushing with 811 yards in nine games. His 12 touchdowns led the CIAA in that category and he was second in the conference in total scoring. He had a total of 1,233 all-purpose yards on the season. Williams was a Pre-Season All-CIAA selection. Raymond Williams led the Bears in rushing with 811 yards in nine games. RB, 6'0" 190) – led the Bears in rushing with 768 yards and eight touchdowns. Williams finished the 2008 season second in the CIAA in yards per rush; rushing touchdowns, kick return yards, and kick return touchdowns. He finished third in the conference in rushing yards. He finished ninth in Division II in kickoff returns. A sophomore majoring in Business Management, Williams is from Cleveland, OH.

FACES OF THE CIAA

March 12, 2009 -Bears Trounce Tigers of Saint Paul's in Doubleheader The Shaw University Bears went to work and trounced the Tigers of Saint Paul's College in a doubleheader at Russell Field. Following a loss to Claflin, Head Coach Bobby Sanders said, "The Bears need to be hungry." They heard him, honored his request and hit the field with a vengeance towards redemption.

In the first game of the match the Bears collectively showed up and showed out. The highlight of the game came when Clyde Brooks hit a homerun in the sixth inning; he was 2 for 2 with 2 hits and 1 rbi for the game. Matthew Mitchell went 3 for 5 with 3 hits, 2 rbi's and 1 stolen base. Cedric Powell went 3 for 4 with 3 hits and 2 rbi's. James Duplessis went 2 for 5 with 2 hits, 2 rbi's and 1 stolen base. Trevin Jackson went 2 for 4 with 2 hits, 2 rbi's and 1 stolen base. Jeffrey Cannon went 1 for 4 with 2 rbi's and 2 stolen bases. The Bears won the first game 16-5.

In the second game, there were no signs of fatigue. The Bears continued to play extremely well with limited errors. The star of the day without question was Powell who hit two homeruns; one in the 5th inning and one in the 7th. He went 4 for 5 with 4 hits, 5 rbi's, 2 homeruns and 1 stolen base. Following was Duplessis with a homer in the 3rd inning; he went 2 for 5 with 1 homerun. 2 hits and 2 rbi's. Anthony Ray went 2 for 3 with 2 hits and 3 rbi's. Cannon went 2 for 4 with 2 hits, 2 rbi's and 1 stolen base. Brooks finished going 2 for 4 with 2 hits and 2 rbi's.

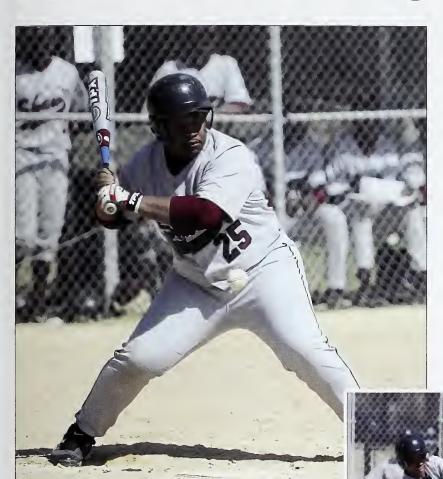

The Bears had an amazing day of individual and team victories on the baseball diamond. The team showed up in Lawrenceville and played to their true potential and for their beloved Coach Sanders, they chewed and swallowed the Tigers of Saint Paul's College bite by talented bite.

The Shaw Bears played Lincoln University in a double header at Lions Park before an excited crowd of fans. In the first game the Bears dominated on defense and offense. With quick 3 up 3 down innings on defense, the Bears rallied at bat winning the first game 15-0. Leaders for the Bears were Lee Smith going 3-5 and Jeffery Cannon going 1-1 (4 walks).

The second game mimicked the first, with the Bears dominating again on defense and offense, not giving Lincoln a chance to attempt a rally. Leaders for the Bears were Lee Smith going 3-4 and Jeffery Cannon 1-2 (2 walks). The Bears won 18-2.

The Dream Team

Dr. Jeffrey A. Smith, Vice President for Student Affairs and Administration

There is a different kind of buzz about this Dream Team. They are iconic and larger then life. Similar to the gold medal winners of 1992, this team is determined to shake and bake and shoot for the ultimate goal of putting Shaw U back on the map. We must always embrace our past but their aim is to secure our future. This roster is filled with giants in academics and introducing Shaw U's Dream Team: Dr. Jeffrey A. Smith, Dr. Marilyn Sutton-Haywood and Dr. Lee E. Monroe.

Marilyn Sutton-Haywood - Vice President for Academic Affairs.

Going for The Gold

The 1992 Summer Olympic Games, officially known as the Games of the XXV Olympics, were an international multi-sport event celebrated in Barcelona, Catalonia, Spain. The United States Men's National Basketball team, better known as the Dream Team brought home the gold. The roster was filled with hall of famers and NBA greats such as Charles Barkley, Larry Bird, Clyde Drexler, Patrick Ewing, Magic Johnson, Michael Jordan. It took a team like this, unlike any other in history, to fulfill its destiny.

Dr. Lee E. Monroe Vice President for Institutional Advancement and Sponsored Programs - "Be the kind of change you want to see in the world."

STAND APARDURSTUD

Hail, Dear Old Shaw U, Thy sons revere thy name, Long shall thy works be proud, Undimmed thy fame, Time shall thy praises sing; Glory repay thy tears, And loud thy praises ring, Thru' all the years. Noble thy hallways Noble thy grassy plains, Nobler the hearts of men Where thou dost reign. All we who love thy name, Stout hearts that shall not fail, All rise and loud proclaim, Alma Mater, Hail!

Lift every voice and sing, 'Til earth and heaven ring, Ring with the harmonies of Liberty; Let our rejoicing rise High as the listening skies, Let it resound loud as the rolling sea. Sing a song full of the faith that the dark past has taught us, Sing a song full of the hope that the present has brought us; Facing the rising sun of our new day begun, Let us march on 'til victory is won. tony the road we trod, Bitter the chast'ning rod, Felt in the days when hope unborn had died; Yet with a steady beat, Have not our weary feet Come to the place for which our fathers sighed? We have come over a way that with tears has been watered, We have come, treading our path through the blood of the slaughtered, Out from the gloomy past, 'Til now we stand at last Where the white gleam of our bright star is cast. God of our weary years,

God of our silent tears, Thou who has brought us thus far on the way;

Thou who has by Thy might

Led us into the light,

Keep us forever in the path, we pray.

Lest our feet stray from the places, our God, where we met Thee, Lest, our hearts drunk with the wine of the world, we forget Thee; Shadowed beneath Thy hand,

May we forever stand True to our God, Free to our native land

A Senior's Perspective

Steve Allen

Antonio Bradley

As I enter into the last semester of my sojourn here at Shaw Divinity School, I am deeply humbled by the experience. I have been blessed to meet and learn with some of God's most talented and caring ministers. Together, we have shared the agony and the ecstasy of obtaining a sound theological education while juggling the responsibilities of parenthood, family, jobs, and/or churches. What a blessing it has been to work with and learn from others whose life experiences have added so richly to the learning experience.

Equally rewarding has been the quality of the theological education that we have received from an outstanding faculty that is truly gifted and gives so freely of their knowledge and their experiences with God and in ministry. I am certain that because of the high quality of the theological education, I received here at Shaw that I am prepared for the next leg of my journey to render a life as a servant to God who has called me to a life of ministry among His people.

Shaw Divinity School uniquely prepares ministers to enter into a variety of ministerial services but it particularly helps those of us who are destined to serve in the prophetic role so sorely needed in our local communities, the States where we will serve and indeed in our nation.

I would be remiss in closing this article without mentioning the role of the Graduate Student Government Association that works diligently to try to ensure that a wholesome learning and social environment is maintained at the Divinity School. It is my prayer that in the years to come persons enrolled in the Divinity School will support the Graduate Student Government Association. Working together the students, faculty and the Dean of the Divinity School can push for capital improvements and curriculum improvements to make the divinity school experience even more beneficial.

Without a doubt, the journey has been worth the sacrifices made! Thanks be to God!

uilt in 1881 and originally named the Leonard Medical School, Leonard Hall was established as the first four-year medical school for black students in the United States, and the first fouryear medical school in North Carolina. The building was named after Judson Wade Leonard, the brother-in-law of Shaw's founder Henry Martin Tupper. Leonard Hall was built to train Christian physicians to serve African-Americans. Today, this building houses the Shaw University Divinity School, it is here where spiritually minded individuals come to prepare for the clergy, laity, clinical, pastoral and teaching/research ministry profession. Leonard Hall is a historic educational building located on the campus of Shaw University and is a contributing part of the East Raleigh-South Park Historic District, listed in the National Register of Historic Places in 1990. In 1994 it was designated a North Carolina Historic Landmark.

There is something in the eyes of a Shaw graduate that speaks volumes. Now that the academic work is done and four years of collegiate toil is immediately turned into memories. On May 9, 2009 Shaw University presented 405 graduates in the Class of 2009. The graduation ceremony was held in the newly constructed Raleigh Convention Center, where Congresswoman Sheila Jackson Lee, member of the 110th Congress, gave the address after she was conferred with an honorary degree of Doctor of

We will not forget

We knew little that morning that God would call your name. In life we loved you dearly in death we do the same.

It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone. For part of us went with you the day God called you home.

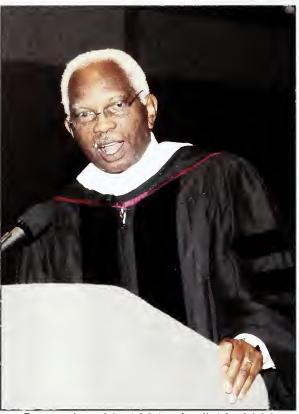

With tearful eyes we watched you as we saw you pass away, although we love you deeply we could not make you stay. You left us peaceful memories your love is still our guide and though we can not see you, you are always at our side. Your golden heart stopped beating, hard work and hands at rest.

God broke our hearts to prove to us that He only takes the best.

Our family chain is broken and nothing seems the same. But as God calls us one by one the chain will link again.

It was with a heavy heart when we learned of the passing of Dr. Frederick Jones, former chairman of the Humanities Department at Shaw University. Dr. Jones passed on Sunday, October 18, 2009.

From The words of Dr. Yancy,

"During his six years of employment. Dr. Jones was a role model to his colleagues and a great professor and advisor to his students. He was nationally acclaimed by his peers and will be missed by all. We will keep his family in all of our prayers."

THIS IS IT

IN THEATERS OCTOBER 28 ALBUM AVAILABLE EVERYWHERE OCTOBER 26

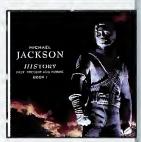

Michael Jackson was unquestionably the biggest pop star of the 1980s, and certainly one of the most popular recording artists of all time. In his prime, Jackson was an unstoppable juggernaut, possessing all the tools to dominate the charts seemingly at will; an instantly identifiable voice, eye-popping dance moves, stunning musical versatility and loads of sheer star.

Yet as Jackson's career began, very gradually, to descend from dizzying heights of his peak years, most of the media's attention focused on his increasingly bizarre eccentricities; he was often depicted as an arrested man-child completely sheltered from adult reality by a life spent in show business. Whether as a pop-icon or a tabloid caricature, Jackson always remained bigger than life.

- Antoinette Warren

"This Is It" is the two-disc compilation album that features the music of American pop and R&B musician Michael Jackson, released October 26, 2009 on Epic Records. The release coincided with a concert film which documented Jackson's rehearsals for a concert series of the same name. The album features Jackson's final studio single "This is it" which was recorded right before his tragic death. The single, which was written by Jackson along with Canadian singer-songwriter Paul Anka, has already topped the charts of many countries. Michael's music will live forever.

This salad is courtesy of Chef Joseph Kwarteng (pictured left), head chef for Thompson Hospitality. "Chef" as he is affectionately called believes in eating right and eating healthy, because we are what we eat. Chef has worked at Shaw for 2-1/2 years. Before working for Thompson, he was head chef at Wake Forest University in Winston Salem. Chef's vision is to work towards getting students to eat healthier and this spinach salad is just choice for them, "it helps them feel like a giant! And helps with student readiness as they prepare for classes. Even First Lady, Michelle Obama has spoken out for healthy living and encourages us to eat more fruits and vegetables."

Spinach Salad with Warm Bacon Dressing

Prep Time 20 min

Ingredients

- 8 ounces young spinach
- 2 large eggs
- 8 pieces thick-sliced bacon, chopped
- 3 tablespoons red wine vinegar
- 1 teaspoon sugar
- 1/2 teaspoon Dijon mustard
- Kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper
- 4 large white mushrooms, sliced 3 ounces read onion (1 small), very thinly sliced

Directions:

remove the stems from the spinach and wash, drain and pat dry thoroughly. Place into a large mixing bowl and set aside.

Place the eggs into an electric kettle and cover with cold water by at least 1-inch. Turn the kettle on. Once the water comes to a boil, the kettle will turn itself off. Leave the eggs in the water for 15 minutes. Remove and peel off the shell. Slice each egg into 8 pieces and set aside.

While the eggs are cooking, fry the bacon and remove to a paper towel. to drain, reserving 3 tablespoons of the rendered fat. Crumble the bacon and set aside.

Transfer the fat to a small saucepan set over low heat and whisk in the red wine vinegar, sugar and Dijon mustard. Season with a small pinch each of kosher salt and black pepper.

Add the mushrooms and the sliced onion to the spinach and toss. Add the dressing and bacon and toss to combine. Divide the spinach between 4 plates or bowls and evenly divide the egg among them. Season with pepper, as desired. Serve immediately.

With every year comes a unique set of challenges when it comes to putting the yearbook together. This year was special since we did not have an on campus photographer to take quality pictures that would be reflective of the many events, clubs, organizations and happenings. This feat seemed impossible at best. However, when you put God first anything is possible. Armed with a digital camera and loaner from Ms. Holley, we set out to tackle this insurmountable task. Just as we were on the verge of calling it quits, a man named Robert Stephens from Heart and Soul Magazine stepped in and offered his services, the senior pictures on pages 5 through 15 and 19 through 25 are the result of his most talented and generous gift. (That's one for Jesus).

The next hurdle was junior and sophomore pictures, we figured the digital camera would work, I prayed hard that night and the next morning a man named Lemmy came to our aide, the pictures on pages 37 through 40, 42 through 47 and 50 are the result of his precious gift. (That's two for Jesus) We thought we were sailing, freshman pictures would be a breeze, of course we were wrong. I went down on knees again until another man named Steve Worthy appeared and offered his services, the pictures on pages 71-75 are the result of his brilliant work. (That's three for Jesus). Deadlines were approaching fast and I wanted to give the freshman class another go, to fill up some of these pages and that is when Dr. Roberson, Dean of the Divinity School agreed to let us use his camera, we completed the freshman class photos with the help of Celinda Holland. (That's four for Jesus).

We were still no where near finished but the window was still open and the blessings were still coming. On no particular day a man named Tim Ridgely entered my office and offered his services the pictures on pages 2-3, 17 and 67 are the result of his skilled work. Now if you have been counting, that is five for Jesus and we are still counting. We hope that we will encourage just one student, one parent, one administrative or staff person to share this book with another to help us uplift each other as we celebrate our home, our school, our Shaw.

We the yearbook staff would like to thank everyone that gave so generously of their time, and energy to this book.

God bless
